

I Love My Park Day

ON THE OLD CROTON AQUEDUCT

Saturday, May 7, 2016 9:30 am to 3 pm

Rain Date Sunday May 8

Rid the Trail of Invasive Plants with the Friends of the Old Croton Aqueduct

Lop Vines, Learn to Identify, Prune and Remove Invasive Plants & Bushes

Register in Advance at www.ptny.org/ilovemypark
Walk-ins Welcome

Where: On the trail at the Croton Gorge Unique Area (look for white canopy)

Parking: On Quaker Bridge Rd, Croton on Hudson, between houses #124 & #99

Perks: Water, coffee, snacks, gloves, tee shirts, tools, & bug stuff provided

Bring: Lunch! Consider wearing long pants, a hat and a long sleeved shirt

Sponsored by Friends of the Old Croton Aqueduct (aqueduct.org)

In collaboration with NYS Office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation, Lower Hudson Partnership for Regional Management of Invasive Species, Run On Hudson Valley, Mrs. Greens, Feed the Birds, The Black Cow, Sunrise Solar Solutions

TEATOWN
LAKE RESERVATION
A Nature Preserve & Education Center

AVALON
OSSINING